The old village of Milatos is about 1.5kms inland and consists of old traditional stone houses, churches, small local shop and a few kafeneons. There are wonderful views here down across to the sea. Approx 3kms on the road out of the old village is the famous Milatos Cave. History has it that in 1823, 2500 Cretans sought refuge there when they were besieged by their Turkish occupiers. It is still possible to visit
