Viseu District is located in north-central Portugal, an hour and a half drive from Porto (about 100km east of the Atlantic Ocean), with Tondela having a central position in relation to the district. This city has cultivated the art of welcoming anyone from any part of the world.

The city of Tondela is an important regional economic hub, with strong manufacturing industries and the wine industry (demarcated wine region of Dão), thermal cultural tourism and services. Surrounded by several rivers and mountains, its location focuses on the national map where cultural heritage and gastronomy are some of the main qualities.

The region is home to several museums and churches where hospitality is a strong hallmark of the district.

Viseu has a mild climate, however the climate is characterized by hot summers and humid winters. Thanks to the low cost of living, safety, education, sports and leisure, this city is one of the best places to live and work in Portugal!
