The property offers impressive views across Psiloritis mountain and the vast olive groves of the area, as well as of the sea from the roof top, which is accesibe through a staircase. The villa is at the final stage of development and it combines traditional stone elements with the conveniences of modern amenities.

The village center can be reached on foot in 15 minutes.

Kamilari is 4 km from the archaeological site of Phaistos and is the ideal base to explore the lovely plain of Messara, with its traditional villages, rich history and, of course, its beautiful bay and beaches on the south coast of Crete. Heraklion is 65 kms away.
