ABOUT THE AREA

Javea is situated on the most easterly point of mainland Spain about 100 kms from Valencia and 90 kms from Alicante. When you are going to travel to Javea from Alicante and Valencia Airport you have various options of transport. You can choose to rent a car, take a private airport transfer, use a public bus shuttle, or a taxi service.

Javea has one of the best climates in the world. The summers are neither too hot nor too cold, and the same can be said of the rest of the seasons. Not only is the climate usually sunny and mild, low humidity makes even the hottest days very pleasant. People suffering from asthma and allergies will also feel better in this healthy, almost perfect climate.

Nestled between hills and mountains in the province of Alicante, Javea is an area on the Spanish coast that is well protected from harsh weather conditions. As a result of the southern shores of many salt lakes, the humidity in Javea is quite low compared to the rest of Spain and Europe. This means that even on the hottest summer days, the heat is a dry and much more tolerable during the day. The summers are not too hot in Javea and the winters are not too cold. Javea is divided into three parts: Javea Pueblo (Old Town); Javea Puerto (the busy harbor area); and Playa de Arenal (the largest beach area).

The Province of Alicante is in the Valencia region of southeastern Spain. It's known for bustling seaside resorts and Mediterranean beaches along its coast, the Costa Blanca. The province's capital city Alicante is home to the hilltop medieval castle of Santa Bárbara. Its many beaches include San Juan, lined with restaurants and bars. To the north, the seaside resort of Benidorm is known for its boisterous nightlife.
