Beschreibung:

Incorporating a first floor into a new building project, will offers a unique opportunity to enhance the view to the surrounding landscape.

The flat land has some autochthonous trees evokes a sense of tranquility and natural beauty that can only be found in rural areas, where life as a slow rhythm.

The project, which is in the final design phase, could be an excellent starting point for transforming this old house into a modern and spacious home. Including the project in the sales price can help the decision-making process and for potential buyers make it easier to tailor the property to their own tastes and needs.

Furthermore, the proximity to Loulé, a city full of history and culture, but also with all modern amenities, is definitely a positive point.
