Location

Haria is described as the valley of a thousand palms and is one of the greenest parts of the island. The hills are terraced and locals grow varied produce including vines, garlic, corn, flowers and more. The town has many interesting buildings and holds a craft market each Saturday. Close by is the village of Maguez, a small farming village with a mini-market, traditional food shop, post office, three bars and a church which is one of the works of Cesar Manrique. Maguez is surrounded by working fields and mountains, and is only 5 kilometres from the lovely Arrieta beach. Fantastic fish restaurants on the coast, and meat restaurants inland are all readily available. Life here is traditional, simple, and relaxed.
