A massive two-story house in the village of Voinika, Yambol region!

Price: 15,000 euros

Area: 100 sq.m

Plot: 775 sq.m

The property suffered a fire on the first floor and only the first floor was affected!

The village is located only 30 km from the town of Yambol and 68 km from the seaside town of Burgas and the international airport.

A quiet area in the middle of a beautiful landscape

The first floor of the house is entered through PVC doors and has the following distribution: entrance hall, kitchen (fire damaged), bedroom and internal stairs leading to the second floor.

Second floor - two large bedrooms, corridor, bathroom and toilet.

The house has a stone foundation and brick construction. There is no problem with the roof. The fire affected only the kitchen on the first floor. Due to the smoke, the floors, walls and ceilings are blackened throughout the house. The windows have been replaced with PVC. There is electricity, water, internet and cable TV.

The yard is 775 square meters and there is parking for several cars. There is a summer kitchen, an outbuilding and a nice gazebo in the yard. There is also a well in the yard.

The entire property is surrounded by a fence and the road to it is accessible all year round.

The village is located in the Tundzha hill area, about 255 m. altitude, on the northern slopes of the hill \"Malak Bakadzhik\" area.

The village is:

30 km from the city of Yambol,

68 km from the seaside town of Burgas

289 km. from Sofia, the capital of Bulgaria.

Population - 509 inhabitants, all Bulgarians. There are three grocery stores, a church, a post office, medical assistance and a daily bus service to the regional town of Yambol. It is a picturesque village that has a variety of fields, plains, valleys, hills, lakes and streams. Located in the lowlands of the Bakadjik hill, the village is extremely rich in archaeological monuments from different eras. The traces of 14 necropolises were found there.
