For those with children, the adorable Salföld Farm (7-minute drive) is a must-visit to experience traditional Hungarian farm life, connect with nature, enjoy pony rides, pet animals, and more. Cycling, walking, and hiking around Káli Basin and Lake Balaton is an extra with food tastings like cheese and Hungarian sausages. Tihany, Balatonfüred and Keszthely, both very well-known towns on the lake, are a 30-minute drive from here. For lovers of Thermal water, Héviz, the famous spa town is next to Keszthely. Meanwhile, for those looking for a day trip and enjoying the nightlife at Lake Balaton, the town of Siófok—the second most famous tourist attraction after Budapest in Hungary—is a 1 hour 25 minutes drive away.
