Compracasa is a Real Estate Network made up exclusively of members of APEMIP (Association of Real Estate Professionals and Companies of Portugal), a guarantee of professionalism and protection of the rights of consumers and users.

APEMIP occupies today a prominent position in the national real estate market, both for its continuous commitment to the affirmation of the role of the real estate mediation professional in our society, and for the conquest of a greater share in the real estate transaction market, in line with the motto "Strengthen Mediation, Boost the Economy and Serve Consumers".

On the other hand, UCI (União de Crédito Imobiliários) is a Financial Institution specialized in granting housing loans to individuals through professionals in the real estate sector. UCI is the result of a joint venture between two of Europe's largest financial groups: the Santander Group and the BNP Paribas Group. From this union comes the commitment to help develop the real estate brokerage sector, putting at its fingertips the best tools that make it possible to enhance the real estate business.

In this sense, it is perfectly logical that these two reference entities in the real estate mediation sector (APEMIP and UCI) have, in June 2004, signed a collaboration agreement giving rise to CompraraCasa Apemip's Real Estate Network.

CompraraCasa started its commercial activity in August 2004 based on the mission of "To be the Largest and Best National Real Estate Network offering multiple services to real estate agents, based on the concept of common brand", enabling and enhancing synergies that become added values for the market, namely for you who want to sell, buy, rent or transfer a certain property.
