Estepona, once a small fishing and farming village is now a bustling community and tourist destination located West of San Pedro in the direction of Algeciras. Although very popular with visitors, it has managed to retain much of its local Spanish charm and offers a more traditional holiday experience than its more glamorous neighbours further along the coast.

Estepona town is located 33 Km west of Marbella and is approximately 1 hours drive from Málaga's

Pablo Picasso International Airport. The municipality of Estepona stretches from where San Pedro meets Benahavis on the A7, near the Guadalmina river to the entrance of Sabanillas.
