Descripción:

The furnished 2-room apartment is located in the south of Leipzig in the beautiful district of Großschocher, which is located in the southwestern district of Leipzig. The district has gained considerable attractiveness in the past two decades, as the residential buildings in the neighborhood have been appealingly renovated. In the immediate vicinity, great recreational opportunities have been created from former lignite mines. Especially worth seeing are the Mühlpark and the Cospudener Lake, which is located in close proximity to the southern districts of Leipzig. Here you can swim, sail, and sunbathe. The lake attracts many visitors and offers diverse leisure activities. For club-goers, well-known and trendy clubs like the Distillery or elipamanoke can be reached in just ten minutes by car. The apartment itself has a spacious balcony where you can enjoy the sun and fresh air. The living room is modernly furnished and offers a comfortable couch as well as a large flat-screen TV. The fully-equipped fitted kitchen invites you to cook and has a dining table for four people. The quietly located bedroom is equipped with a comfortable double bed and offers a pleasant night's sleep. The bathroom has a spacious shower and a washing machine for convenient laundry washing. The one-time cleaning of the apartment is to be paid by the tenant. The broadcasting fee must be registered and paid by the tenant themselves. Enjoy your stay in this wonderful furnished 2-room apartment and discover Leipzig at its best!
