Descripción:

Small 'chateau' built in the 13th Century and restored in the 19th Century situated just 20 minutes from Bergerac on a site full of history of over 79 acres. The property consists of the castle with approx. 425m2 living area, a renovated guest house, three other buildings to renovate and a 10m x 5m pool with open views. The land with meadows and woods is bordered by a river and has a water source and ancient archeological sites. Renovation and investment is necessary to bring this amazing property to standard and could be perfect for events in a natural and authentic environment.
