Descripción:

Situated in a small friendly village this stone house has lots of character and original features. The kitchen and original living area are at the front of the house, and to the rear there is another living area opening onto a small terrace, with views across the fields. Upstairs there are 4 double bedrooms with original wooden flooring and a newly renovated shower room. There is a huge attic space and a large barn which could be renovated to provide additional living space (subject to planning permission). A primary school, restaurant and cafe are within walking distance and Souillac is just 15 mins away.
