Rustic land with 5700m2 excellent sun exposure good accesses. Area equipped with basic sanitation (water network, sewers and electricity). In this region wherever attention is turned, the colors of the mountains and the sea are always present. The region has a fantastic Mediterranean climate with more than 300 days of sunshine, marked with the colors of the sea and the flowers of the countryside. Let yourself be carried away by the vastness of the Algarve coast, against the backdrop of the most beautiful beaches in Europe, where you can see the cutouts of the cliffs and cliffs over the fine golden areas. In addition to the charms of the landscape, the Algarve has as one of the greatest points of attraction the flavors of traditional Algarve cuisine. The whole menu is filled with fish and seafood, and also by regional delights, represented by fig, almond, carob and medronho brandy, distilled in the areas of the mountains in old copper stills. It's region has a barrocal zone with many places of high ecological interest, rich in biodiversity and ecosystems. The handicraft is very peculiar and elaborated by Algarvian craftsmen who still resort to ancestral techniques in pottery, basketry, copper, brass and linen and jute work.

Besides the tranquility of the interior, the lively Algarve nights are characterized by the many bars, nightclubs, marinas and casinos that ensure the fun of the most revellers. It is also recommended to practice outdoor sports, whether on the green golf courses already considered the best in Europe, or on the fantastic beaches of the region. Due to its peripheral location, the Algarve has good internal connections, with other Portuguese cities, and external cities, with the other countries of the world. In terms of air transport, the various national companies guarantee regular travel, making the region a privileged stopover point of departures and arrivals. The Algarve also has a good road network, consisting of Highways (AE), Main Itineraries (IP), Complementary Itineraries (IC), National Roads (EN) and Municipal Roads. More than a thousand reasons to know one of the best destinations to live! 1136-10 -
