Nestled in the picturesque fishermen's quarter of Nieul Sur Mer, this charming house offers more than just a place to live. Its privileged location near the ocean promises enchanting walks and breathtaking panoramas renowned throughout the region.

This unique house stands out for its clever arrangement in two parts, each with independent access and connected by a covered patio:

The first part, covering approximately 175 m², welcomes you into a warm space where a spacious living area under a cathedral ceiling, enhanced by a pellet stove, creates a convivial atmosphere. An open semi-professional kitchen invites culinary creation, while an outdoor courtyard offers a relaxation space. Upstairs, a master suite, a bedroom with an en-suite bathroom, and a study or third bedroom await you, all accessible via a beautiful walkway. There are toilets on each level.

The second part, with a surface area of approximately 75 m² in duplex, offers an open kitchen onto a living/dining area as well as two bedrooms, a bathroom, and separate toilets.

For investors, this house offers a particularly attractive potential for annual or seasonal rental income! Furthermore, the first part covering 175 m² can easily be converted into a commercial space or artisan
