Have you watched the video yet? - Lovely, pretty little town house just a few minutes walk from the station with Eurostar connections and a gentle stroll from the heart of Ruffec with it's vibrant market and independent shops. Fully equipped with gas central heating and on mains drains, this lovely house would make a perfect little pied a terre or Air B and B potential.

There are a few little finishing off jobs that would make this lovely stone house in Ruffec perfect, notably a partition wall upstairs to separate off the WC and sink in the third bedroom.

The department of Charente is located in the centre-west of France and is part of the Poitou-Charentes region along with Deux Sevres, Charente Maritime and the Vienne department.

Its name as is often the case comes from the river Charente which snakes through the department. Two local dialects are spoken in the area, Saintongeais in the west and Occitan to the east.

Charente is a thriving department for several reasons, Cognac production is one of the most interesting and profitable industries, the export level of approx. 95% is a success, the consumption in France being only 5% (some say they keep the best 5% in France!).

The department has many typical towns, Angouleme in the south east for example hosts an international festival that attracts hundreds of visitors and is not to be missed.

The region is popular with hikers, bikers and nature lovers who like to discover the woodlands, lakes and streams that are part of this amazing landscape.
