17 detached villas amidst enchanting scenery. Adjacent to the Corvera Golf Country Club and surrounded by the breathtaking Sierra de Carrascoy mountain range

Each villa, spread over two floors, has been designed with attention to detail and comfort. On the ground floor, you will find a generous living-dining room, a bedroom and a toilet. Head upstairs to discover two bedrooms, one with an en-suite bathroom, and an additional full bathroom. A sun-drenched solarium on the top floor offers panoramic views that will surprise you every day.

The residential complex is steeped in luxury, with swimming pools, a chill-out area and communal parking. But what really sets these homes apart is the location. Just 25 minutes from bustling Murcia and an eight-minute drive from charming Corvera, this location offers the best of both worlds - tranquillity and access to essential amenities such as shops, restaurants, schools and gyms.

As icing on the cake, these villas are located in the heart of the Corvera Golf Country Club, promising a lifestyle steeped in wellness, leisure and nature. With the nearby natural park of La Murta and Corvera, there are countless opportunities for relaxation and quality time with the family.

The avant-garde architecture, characterised by grey spruce and white satin on the exterior, creates a modern look that harmonises with the natural surroundings. And for those looking for extra luxury, there is the option of adding a private pool and Jacuzzi to the garden.
