Location

Located just 300 meters from the ocean and a tidal pool, the property is within easy reach of local amenities, with shops and dining options only a 7-minute walk away.

The village of Charco del Palo caters to naturists (nudists) and is located on the coast in the northern area of Lanzarote close to the village of Mala. It comprises of a number of residential properties as well as holiday apartments and complexes, local bars and restaurants and a supermarket within the village. This well maintained area has a large number of German residents who ensure everything is kept to a high standard. The coast has rocky outcroppings for sunbathing rather than beaches, and has some of the best dive sites on the island.
