Description:

This delightful ground floor house is located in Agios Dimitrianos, Paphos.

Agios Dimitrianos, nestled in a scenic region between Paphos and Polis, is a picturesque village known for its tranquility and traditional charm. Surrounded by lush landscapes and vineyards, the village offers a serene escape with its quaint architecture and welcoming community. Rich in cultural heritage, Agios Dimitrianos provides a glimpse into authentic Cypriot village life, making it an ideal destination for those seeking a peaceful retreat while remaining in close proximity to the vibrant offerings of the Paphos district.

Situated against a backdrop of awe-inspiring mountain vistas, this splendid 3 bedroom ground floor house offers an idyllic retreat for those seeking a harmonious blend of nature and comfort. The traditional stone-built exterior lends timeless charm to the residence, embodying a classic architectural style that seamlessly integrates with its breathtaking surroundings. Offered unfurnished, this property provides a blank canvas for tenants to infuse their personal style and preferences.

Step inside to discover an open-plan layout, gracefully connecting the living, dining, and kitchen areas. This design not only enhances functionality but also creates a fluid and inviting space. Patio doors open onto a covered veranda, extending the living space outdoors and providing a perfect vantage point for enjoying the view of the pool and surrounding landscape. The living area features a cosy fireplace, adding warmth and character to the interior.

The house comprises three thoughtfully designed bedrooms. Two shared bathrooms contribute to the charm of the residence, one featuring a jacuzzi for indulgent relaxation and the other equipped with a shower.

The outdoor space is a private paradise, boasting a garden with a refreshing pool for leisurely moments. An integrated barbecue area enhances outdoor living, creating an ideal setting for entertaining family and friends. Covered parking ensures convenience and protection for vehicles, while a storage room adds practicality to the property.

A beautiful home in a peaceful village setting.
