Description:

A truly stunning home set in one of the most desirable locations of Malta. Designed to meticulous standards and sparing no expense in ensuring this home is perfect for family or entertainment this house of character offers all one could want in this peaceful and beautiful village. With approximately a tumolo and a half of land this home offers the typical features found in a house of character having been perfectly restored and to its original stance and emphasising its beauty. An open plan kitchen living and dining area with fireplace is found on the ground floor as well as a library reading room. An additional internal yard gives a secondary option to access the 1st floor where one finds four bedrooms two with ensuite a guest bathroom and a terrace. On the 2nd floor one finds an additional fifth bedroom with ensuite and an incredible terrace offering spectacular views. Outside one finds a spectacularly large garden with pool enjoying plenty of space to entertain. A large garage just seconds away may also be made available. A truly one of a kind home.
