From the lounge, you look directly out on to the terrace and the sea-front. The apartment really is in a dream position and is one of just a handful of apartments in Los Cristianos, that are on the front-line. The Terrace is South-West facing so you have sunshine from mid to late morning and then for most of the day. The apartment is easily accessible, with the elevator taking you directly from the walkway below to the apartment.

This is a rare opportunity given the apartment's position and views.
