Olhão is a traditional fishing port located in the Algarve region of southern Portugal. It is the capital of the Ria Formosa, a lagoon area that houses a protected nature reserve, and is known for its traditional fish and vegetable markets, as well as its traditional "cubist" architecture. It is also a popular tourist destination, with beautiful white sand beaches located on the islands of the Ria Formosa, as well as many restaurants and shops. The village also has a marina and a riverside area with stunning views over the Ria Formosa. Olhão is close to Faro airport, just a 15-minute drive away. Its very central geographical location also allows access to several tourist attractions in less than an hour is the beautiful Guadiana River, which borders Spain, as well as the best golf courses of Vilamoura and Quinta do Lago are less than half an hour away.
