Location

This property is located around 50m from the beach / sea in the village of Charco del Palo and around a 25 minute drive from the airport. The village of Charco del Palo is located on the coast in the northern area of Lanzarote close to the village of Mala. It comprises of a number of residential properties as well as holiday apartments and complexes, local bars and restaurants and a well-stocked supermarket within the village. This well maintained area has a large number of German residents who ensure everything is kept to a high standard. The coast has rocky outcroppings for sunbathing rather than beaches, and has some of the best dive sites on the island.
