Unleash Your Irish Dream: A Traditional Cottage Awaits in Kilrush, County Clare

Nestled amidst the rolling hills and verdant landscapes of County Clare, Ireland, lies a captivating opportunity waiting to be unearthed. This charming traditional Irish cottage, brimming with potential and steeped in history, beckons those seeking a unique investment opportunity or a haven for their very own

Irish escape.

A Canvas for Imagination:

Traditional Irish 250-year-old, stone cottage with massive central stone fireplace, complete with original iron crane used for suspending cooking pots from. Original flagstones. Original beams where the thatched roof once sat.

Outbuildings comprise original flagstones and a second stone fireplace. Cottage and outbuildings are laid out in a courtyard style, with direct access onto the quiet country lane, which only sees the odd tractor. Old metal hay barn located to the rear and original old stone pillars located behind outbuildings. The stone wall along road boundary. Old cattle crush in the yard.

Original stone milk churn stands in the yard. New Poppy Red UV-protected plastisol, corrugated roof. Five cottage windows have been squared up and re-pointed in lime mortar. 2.7 acres of land lie mainly to the rear of the property, with gated access to the road and flanked by forestry land. There is a septic tank to the rear of the cottage which needs reinstating. There is a mains electricity supply to the house but this needs to be connected properly by the electricity board. The water stopcock is on the lane, a few metres from the cottage, and just needs connecting.

The property has been fully approved for the Vacant Homes Refurbishment Grant of €70k. This has not been drawn down so the new owner will be able to reapply for the grant.

Unveiling the Potential:

While the existing layout may require redevelopment work, the possibilities are endless. With a footprint that can be cleverly reconfigured, this cottage has the potential to be transformed into a spacious and comfortable dwelling. Imagine creating a home with four well-appointed bedrooms, each offering a haven of peace and tranquility. Three modern bathrooms can be seamlessly integrated into the design, ensuring convenience and comfort for all residents. Picture a light-filled living area, the heart of the home, where evenings can be spent gathered around a crackling fireplace, sharing stories and laughter. Envision a modern kitchen, equipped with all the necessary amenities, allowing you to whip up delicious meals using fresh, local ingredients. Let your imagination wander and design a home that perfectly reflects your unique style and taste.

Perfect for Entertaining:

The expansive 11,000-square-meter plot surrounding the cottage unlocks a world of possibilities. Imagine hosting delightful summer barbecues on a spacious patio, surrounded by the lush greenery of the Irish countryside. Picture evenings spent stargazing around a crackling bonfire, sharing stories under the vast canvas of the night sky. The ample space provides room for further development, allowing you to create the perfect oasis for relaxation and outdoor enjoyment. Perhaps you envision a charming vegetable garden overflowing with fresh produce, or a secluded reading nook nestled amongst the trees. The possibilities are endless, and the land awaits your vision.
