REDUCED in price - Located in a QUIET RURAL HAMLET in the ROLLING COUNTRYSIDE between South Finistere and Morbihan, we have this lovely wooden framed DETACHED HOUSE set on landscaped grounds of approximately 740 m2.

Ground floor: large living room opening onto a south terrace, comprising: fitted kitchen, dining room (with wood burner) and living room (possibility of modification into a bedroom on the ground floor), entrance, bathroom, laundry room.

First floor: mezzanine opened on living room, 3 bedrooms among which one with private balcony and one with integrated dressing, office and bathroom (to finish).

Attached to the rear of the house: wooden shelters / workshop.

Land perfectly maintained by landscaper.

The department of Finistere has a feeling of being carved out of the earth by the sea and is the wildest area of Brittany, it is also the most western of all French departments. The name Finistere comes from the Latin phrase 'finis terrae', meaning 'land's end'.

It has the English Channel to the north, Cotes-d'Armor and Morbihan to the east, the Bay of Biscay to the south and the Atlantic Ocean to the west.

Quimper, the department's capital, is located to the south and has a distinctive Breton character just like all the main towns such as Brest, Chateaulin, Morlaix and Quimper. Over a third of the area is covered with forest, moors and scrubland.

Along the coast, farmers divide their time between commercial fishing and working their small farms. To see the Fish-markets, Douarnenez is worth a visit as is Brest which is on the west coast and is also a major naval port.
