Description

Located on the north coast of the Dominican Republic near the mouth of the beautiful Yasica River, this oceanfront cattle ranch of over 190,000 square meters (about 47 acres) is a working cattle property.

Already cleared, the farm features substantial ocean frontage on a beautiful sand beach.

There is a stream flowing through the back of the property, and the soil is rich and black. Good roads connect the farm with the town of Sabaneta de Yasica, and electric/telephone service is available at the property line. This property would make a fine oceanfront development, or could be a spectacular family compound on which the owner could raise cattle or grow sought-after crops.
