In this T2 apartment we can count on a wide entrance hall which provides good circulation between the rooms. The kitchen, in addition to being equipped with high-end equipment, is still in open space with the living room providing modern design and creating a social and welcoming atmosphere at home. Still in the kitchen we have a very generous balcony where we find the laundry area.

Regarding the bedrooms, one of them is en suite and all have built-in wardrobes and air conditioning. The other is an individual bathroom, which is much more complete and has a larger area.

In addition, all rooms also have a common balcony.

On the roof terrace we have a swimming pool and a common leisure area, where we can enjoy the breathtaking view over the Ria Formosa.

In the basement we have a parking space.
