Immerse yourself in a world full of natural beauty and alpine flair - welcome to Morter near Latsch, where this new residential project is being built and will make your dreams come true!

The architecture of this new building skilfully combines modern elements with traditional charm and blends harmoniously into the surrounding landscape. A total of six flats with garage and cellar will be built, with each unit having spacious outdoor areas to relax and enjoy. The flats on the ground floor also offer private garden areas, perfect for cosy barbecues or hours of sunshine outdoors.

Access to the residential units is via the basement, which guarantees maximum privacy. Here you can enjoy your own four walls in peace and relax from the stress of everyday life. Modern and energy-efficient living is the focus of this project, with particular attention paid to low maintenance costs.

Laces can be reached by car in just 6 minutes and Silandro in 7 minutes, while the Coldraino train station is just five minutes away by bike. The surrounding countryside invites you to enjoy a variety of leisure activities, be it hiking, cycling or skiing in the nearby ski areas in the Martello and Senalesl valleys.
