PROJECT CONCEPT

Inspired by the development concept of a€œReflection of Naturea€

Setthasiri Krungthep Kreetha is a peaceful community of magnificent residences intelligently designed to offer a serene sanctuary that feels like a world away from the hustle and bustle of a big city. Here, you will relish metropolitan living at its best and relax in the calming embrace of natural greenery.

LIVING / DINING

A new design concept first introduced for Setthasiri Krungthep Kreetha, the L-Shape Design house features a new ground of space utilization. The living/dining area and the green zone are put inside the house to highlight the relationship between the nature outside and residents, offering ultimate privacy.

Space of the whole house plan is utilized to its full potential. Extensive areas composing of multiple land plots are provided on the sides and the back of the house, giving residents even better privacy. The house structure is made of durable and attractive materials, portraying a cozy and trendy image.

FACILITIES

The Clubhouse has been strikingly designed to impress visitors with its architectural splendour and the imposing reflection that is seen in the large overflowing swimming pool. A large community garden provides a great venue for relaxation and outdoor activities.
