Ideal place for storage just a few minutes from the centre and main points of the city of Faro.

Good-sized warehouse, located in the city of Faro, offers an excellent opportunity for those looking for a large and functional space, both for storage and services.

The property is located in a basement above the threshold level, which guarantees good natural lighting, providing a more pleasant and versatile working environment.

It has two storage rooms and exposure to the public road, increasing visibility and facilitating access.

The warehouse has an access ramp, which enables the entry and handling of furniture, goods and other elements necessary for the operation of services. This detail makes all the difference in logistics and in the movement of large objects, ensuring greater efficiency in the use of space.

The surroundings are also a positive point, with public parking available in the vicinity, which facilitates the daily lives of employees and customers. Located in an urbanised area, the warehouse is surrounded by various shops, services and infrastructures that complement its privileged location. Its proximity to supermarkets, educational services, health units and sports and leisure facilities makes it even more attractive, both for businesses and for its employees.

In addition, the property is strategically located close to important points of interest, such as the Centro

Hospitalar Universitário do Algarve - Hospital de Faro, which is only 1 km away, and the Municipal Swimming Pools, located 2 km away.

For those who need access to other areas of the city, Faro Downtown is 3 km away, while the Forum Algarve shopping area is 2 km away.

Gago Coutinho Airport is located just 6.5 km away, making logistics and travel easy.

It is an excellent choice for those who value space, functionality, and a strategic location in the city of Faro, with easy access to all essential services and transport routes.
