Omschrijving:

Let's present a restored mill, a charming stone construction located in the heart of a village in Trás-os-Montes. Situated on the edge of a crystal-clear river, the mill features a waterfall that creates a relaxing and tranquil atmosphere.

The interior of the mill has been carefully restored, retaining the original rustic charm but with all the amenities. The room in the house is cozy and comfortable, with charming décor. The kitchen is fully equipped to prepare delicious meals with fresh local ingredients.

Outside the mill, you can enjoy a sunny patio overlooking the river and the waterfall, a storage room that can be used for other purposes, a laundry room and garage. There is also a BBQ area perfect for al fresco dining.

The location of the mill is ideal for those looking for tranquility and serenity, away from the chaos of the city. There are hiking trails nearby and the opportunity to explore the beautiful surrounding countryside. This restored mill is the perfect getaway for those looking for a relaxing and authentic getaway. With its unique riverside location and serene waterfall, it is the ideal place to spend an unforgettable holiday.
