Compracasa is a Real Estate Network made up exclusively of members of APEMIP (Association of Real Estate Professionals and Companies in Portugal), a guarantee of professionalism and protection of the rights of consumers and users.

APEMIP now occupies a prominent position in the national real estate market, both for its continued commitment to affirming the role of the real estate brokerage professional in our society, and for achieving a greater share in the real estate transaction market, in line with the motto "Strengthen the Mediation, Boosting the Economy and Serving Consumers.

For its part, the UCI (União de Créditos Imobiliários) is a financial institution specialized in granting home loans to individuals through professionals in the real estate sector. UCI is the result of a joint venture between two of the largest financial groups in Europe: Grupo Santander, Grupo BNP Paribas. From this union arises the commitment to help develop the real estate sector, putting at your fingertips the best tools that make it possible to boost the real estate business.

In this sense, it is perfectly logical that these two reference entities in the real estate brokerage sector (APEMIP and the UCI) signed a collaboration agreement in June 2004, giving rise to ComprCasa Apemip's Real Estate Network.

ComprCasa starts its commercial activity in August 2004 based on the mission of Being the Largest and Best National Real Estate Network offering multiple services to real estate agents, based on the concept of a common brand, enabling and enhancing synergies that are transformed into added values for the market, namely for those who intend to sell, buy, lease or transfer a certain property.
