Omschrijving:

Land with 12120 m2 in Monte de Sã£o Miguel, in Moncarapacho.

In a quiet area with views of mountains and sea within an urbanization already under construction, it has the potential to become a great investment.

With quick access via motorway to the capital of the Algarve, Faro, it is twelve centuries old, so strolling through its streets is like walking through a history book, with so many landmarks and events that took place here.

The wonderful Ria Formosa bathes this city, providing a perfect balance between cosmopolitan style and the calm of the seaside.

Currently, Faro is recognized as the cultural capital of the Algarve, with a very large cultural agenda that lasts all year round.

Also with a privileged location in one of the first fishing towns in the Algarve, Olhã£o is recognized for the excellent quality of its fishing and seafood, as well as for the precious and unique islands that can be seen from this magnificent city.

The fantastic historic area, made up of the most wonderful houses in the Algarve, where its terraces stand out, amazes everyone who visits it and fascinates everyone who chooses to live here.
