Burgas is a modern port city, the fourth largest in Bulgaria. A city with developed infrastructure, a large university, numerous educational institutions with different orientation-language schools, mathematics, there is also a Russian school. Restaurants, cafes, shops, supermarket chains and several large malls are located in Burgas. Various salons-beauty, fitness and spa centers, pastry shops, beauty salons and many other establishments characteristic of "big" cities.

But the biggest attraction of Burgas is the Marine Park, which stretches for 7 kilometers along the coast. Life boils in the park from morning to evening: in the summer, a Lunar Park for children works, various playgrounds for Sports, children's zones are equipped, there are gazebos for recreation. Recently a Modern Art Gallery "Flora" was built, where various exhibitions are held. And in the very center of the park is located a summer theater, in which concerts are organized not only by Bulgarian but also by foreign performers.
