Description:

For sale: 80 Years Leasehold 1 bedroom Glamp villas, introducing the Glamp Villa on the enchanting island of Lombok.

If you're seeking budget friendly accommodation, our glamping style one bedroom villa might be the ideal choice for you. While this villa doesn't have its private bathroom, several villas share a communal bathroom facility.

Imagine waking up in the morning to the soothing sound of the sea, sunlight streaming through the windows, and finding yourself in a beautiful paradise that warmly welcomes you. Does this idea excite you? Let's delve further into the details of your dream house.

All furniture is locally sourced from Lombok, resulting in a design that seamlessly blends typical lomboknese elements with modern aesthetics. The equipment is functional, comfortable, and predominantly of high quality.

Shared Bathroom: Glamping style villas share washroom facilities, a feature reflected in their pricing. This accommodation is designed for travelers who are less demanding in their requirements.

The one bedroom villa is designed for a couple valuing their privacy, with walls constructed from quality bricks and soundproof windows.

The building's roof is crafted from locally produced alang-alang grass, a typical material used in tropical areas. Apart from keeping the interior cool, it enhances the authentic Lomboknese experience.

With a friendly budget, you can experience the charm of a glamping-style villa on this wonderful island. In Lombok, land prices have seen consistent annual increases. From 2009 to 2015, the prices surged by 1400%. Currently, Lombok is undergoing another surge in popularity with an influx of tourists, making it an opportune time for an investment with a friendly budget.
