Description:

In the beating heart of Verona, with a spectacular view of the Lungadige, lies this extraordinary flat, a true architectural jewel that captivates from the first glance. The distinguishing feature of this charming residence is the breathtaking view, an unparalleled panorama that transforms every moment spent here into an unforgettable experience. From the bright living room, embellished with large windows, your gaze wanders along the Adige River, offering a natural spectacle of rare beauty. Timeless elegance pervades every corner of this flat, carefully designed to offer practicality and comfort. The eat-in kitchen, designed to meet the needs of food lovers, is a spacious and cosy space, ideal for creating and sharing delicious dishes. The two double bedrooms, equipped with ample wardrobes, offer a haven of luxury and tranquillity, while the two bathrooms, finished with fine materials, provide maximum comfort. The living room opens onto a charming terrace, perfect for dining al fresco and enjoying the splendid view of the Lungadige. The Master bedroom is enriched by a delightful private terrace, an oasis of tranquillity for moments of pure relaxation. In addition, there is the possibility of obtaining a third bedroom or study from a room currently used as a walk-in wardrobe, offering further flexibility and living space. High-quality finishes and meticulous attention to detail make this unique residence an example of refinement and style. Built to meet the highest expectations, this flat represents a perfect combination of modernity and tradition, in harmony with its surroundings. To live here is to experience the essence of luxury, surrounded by the beauty and elegance that only a flat of this calibre can offer.

Discover the pleasure of prestigious living in the heart of Verona, in an exclusive and reserved context, where every detail has been designed to guarantee utmost well-being and serenity.
