Alcantarilha is a small village in the center of the Algarve. This village is a place where you can relax away from the hustle and bustle of the cities.

In Alcantarilha you can find peace and quiet at the Hotel Capela das Artes and 10 minutes away you have Praia Grande, one of the most beautiful and spacious beaches in the Algarve.

Very close to Alcantarilha is the Aqualand Water Park, the Sculptures in the Areia-Fiesa, the Krazy World Zoo and the Zoomarine.

Alcantarilha is only 4 km from Armação de Pêra, so to take a boat trip and see the caves just head to the fisherman's beach.

There are lots of activities you can try, get in touch with us so we can help you better.

In Praia Grande, the sand extends for more than 2 km of open and natural landscape. Two wetlands delimit the beach: the Alcantarilha marsh to the west and the Salgados lagoon to the east, the latter being an internationally renowned place for waterfowl watching, home to important populations of species such as the graceful black-winged stilt or the emblematic camão.

In the robust dune ridge (reaching 300 m wide) aromatic species such as the perpétua-das-areias predominate with its typical curry aroma.

In the central section of the beach, crossing a wooden walkway that offers a panoramic view over the Salgados lagoon and the dunes, it is possible to observe sandstones (fossilized dunes) and the eye-catching clove.
