About the Area

Nestled amidst the rolling hills of County Laois, Ireland, lies the charming village of Killenard. Steeped in history and brimming with natural beauty, Killenard offers a tranquil escape for those seeking a break from the hustle and bustle.

The village boasts a rich heritage, evident in the ruins of a 12th-century church and the imposing Killenard Castle, once a stronghold of the powerful O'Moore clan. Explore the peaceful grounds of the castle and imagine tales of knights and battles that unfolded centuries ago. For history buffs, a visit to the Killenard Heritage Centre provides a deeper dive into the village's fascinating past, showcasing artifacts and stories that bring its legacy to life.

Beyond the historical allure, Killenard offers a haven for nature lovers. Hike or bike along scenic trails that meander through the surrounding countryside, enjoying breathtaking views of the verdant landscape. Explore the Glenbarrow Nature Reserve, a designated Special Area of Conservation, teeming with diverse flora and fauna. If you're feeling adventurous, go fishing on the River Barrow, a haven for anglers, or simply relax by the water's edge and soak up the serenity of the Irish countryside.

Killenard is home to the World Class Heritage Hotel, Health Spa and Golf Club; a small village well located close to all major towns and the M7 motorway.

Number 4 Carriglea is located at the front of this mature and private development, overlooking the landscaped green area and beautiful water fountain. Carriglea is within walking distance of the hotel and golf resort, walking track, shop, pub/restaurant, church, community hall and primary school.

- * Portarlinton Train Station is 4km from Carriglea (direct train services to Dublin Heuston in 37 mins).
- * A short drive to the M7 Motorway (Junction 15 – 7km, Junction 14 – 11km)
