Entering the property from the road, the superb 500sqm two toned cobble stone driveway, with the entrance walls curving to showcase the large wood and steel electric gate, following the cobble stones and arriving at the double garage accessed by remote, large enough for two cars and further large parking spaces in front of the house.

The wide tiled stairs lead you to the swivel glass front door and large side windows into the home's grand entrance, featuring a sweeping central staircase, setting the tone for the luxurious interiors that follow.

On the main level, an expansive open-plan entertainment room seamlessly blends indoor and outdoor living. The heart of the home, the kitchen, is a culinary enthusiast's dream, boasting a large centre island adorned with a rich wood countertop and sleek stone surfaces. The breakfast bar offers a casual dining option, while the spacious layout is perfect for entertaining guests. ABOUT THE AREA

Knysna is a natural paradise of lush, indigenous forests, tranquil lakes and golden beaches. She nestles on the banks of a breathtakingly pretty lagoon, now a protected marine reserve that is home to the extraordinary sea horse and over 200 species of fish.

Beaches, lakes, mountains and rivers provide endless opportunity for leisure and outdoor adventure. Within the town, craft shops, flea-markets and cosy cafés beckon with small-town charm and hospitality. The area around Knysna is a veritable Garden of Eden. This is home of the only forest elephant in South Africa, the rare Pansy Shell, the brilliantly coloured, and elusive, Knysna Loerie, a plethora of waterfowl and forest birds, dolphins and visiting whales.

The indigenous forests in Knysna constitute the largest complex of closed-canopy forest in southern Africa, whilst the remarkable richness of the Fynbos vegetation contributes over 8000 plant species to the Cape floral kingdom. Exploring the Knysna forests, along demarcated walks, with the occasional call of the Loerie, provides a complete escape into a former time when many elephants trod these paths, particularly if you've read Dalene Matthee's 'Circles in a forest'.

Today a mere three elephants are reputed to still roam the forest. The Knysna Elephant Park has brought the elephant back to Knysna and all the elephants are former orphans rescued from culling operations in the Kruger National Park, except for Thandi who was born in the park.

A visit to Knysna would be incomplete without a trip to the heads – a striking geological feature made up of a pair of huge, brightly coloured cliffs lying at the mouth of the lagoon, flanking a channel of potentially treacherous water that flows into Knysna's lagoon. The eastern head houses a lookout with spectacular views of the lagoon, Leisure Isle and Knysna whilst the western head is a privately owned nature reserve called Featherbed Nature Reserve. Visitors can get to the reserve via ferry.

The main street of Knysna, lined with small boutiques and shops is a part of the N2 highway, which passes directly through the centre of the town enroute to the Eastern Cape and beyond. Reached from the Cape Town direction by a narrow causeway, and built on a natural lagoon, virtually enclosed by the famed Knysna heads, this small town is bound on all sides by hills and mountains, covered with indigenous vegetation. Taking advantage of this lagoon setting are the houseboat operators, who offer these leisure vessels on lease to the public. Renting a houseboat ensures both a unique accommodation experience, and an opportunity to explore the town and surrounds in an entirely different way.
