Description:

This historical villa in Tavarnelle Val di Pesa, near Florence, is located in the heart of the Chianti region, known for its exceptional wines and stunning landscapes. Originally a 13th-century convent, the villa was expanded and renovated in the 1990s. The property spans 960 sqm and includes a main villa, an annex, and an additional structure, offering a total of twelve bedrooms and fourteen bathrooms. Surrounded by 2.6 hectares of land, the estate features a verdant garden, a large swimming pool with a sunbathing area, and an olive grove with 300 olive trees. The villa offers a 360-degree panoramic view of the Chianti countryside, renowned for its vineyards and olive groves. The interior boasts antique terracotta floors, exposed wooden beams, and a majestic stone fireplace. The villa also includes ancient cellars, spacious living areas, and a master suite with a private bathroom. Additionally, there is an annex that can be restored and another structure that could be converted into an outbuilding. This property provides a peaceful retreat with breathtaking views, yet is conveniently located near Florence and Greve in Chianti.
