Description:

REDUCED in price - A nice quiet setting for this superb DETACHED NEO-BRTON PROPERTY not far from the shops and services of Baye, TRADITIONAL BRITTANY HOUSE was originally built around 1975/80 and is in good shape to stamp your mark on the decoration.

Ground floor: It has a beautiful living room with another sitting room (with fireplace) opened on the conservatory facing south, of course and of around 25 m2 overlooking the enclosed garden without any overlooking neighbours, a family kitchen to complete and a garage with corner boiler room / laundry room.

Upstairs: 3 bedrooms and bathroom (with shower and bath) plus small office or laundry room.

Fenced and with mature trees of a little over 800 m2, quiet and safe from prying eyes.

The department of Finistere has a feeling of being carved out of the earth by the sea and is the wildest area of Brittany, it is also the most western of all French departments. The name Finistere comes from the Latin phrase 'finis terrae', meaning 'land's end'.

It has the English Channel to the north, Cotes-d'Armor and Morbihan to the east, the Bay of Biscay to the south and the Atlantic Ocean to the west.

Quimper, the department's capital, is located to the south and has a distinctive Breton character just like all the main towns such as Brest, Chateaulin, Morlaix and Quimper. Over a third of the area is covered with forest, moors and scrubland.

Along the coast, farmers divide their time between commercial fishing and working their small farms. To see the Fish-markets, Douarnenez is worth a visit as is Brest which is on the west coast and is also a major naval port.
