Here is an overview of this stunning apartment. As you walk in through the door, you get a feeling you are not going to be disappointed and believe me you are not. This amazing apartment has been totally transformed and now offers you the future owner an apartment that stands out from the rest! To your left you have the bedroom which is a considerable size, with fitted wardrobes and a fabulous shower-room, which has dual access. Walking back to the main entrance, you have a hallway that takes you down to the living area, on your left you have a modern kitchen that uses the space to the full creating an area to prepare and cook food easily when you have friends round for dinner . Moving further down you then have the living area which is a great space with lots of natural light, lastly you have a small utility room for the boiler and washing machine. The owner has taken his time in creating something special and one you will need to see to fully appreciate, as it offers an amazing property in an amazing location and all this is available for 165,000 euros.

This is a fantastic opportunity to buy an apartment with nothing to do, apart from kick off your shoes and relax. Plus it is just a few steps away from all the local restaurants, shops, bars, and the communal pool, and you can walk to the golf course in 3 minutes, so contact us now to arrange a viewing - Thank you for looking!
