Absolutely perfect, for your well-deserved holidays or as permanent residence!

Come and enjoy the soul and the purity of the true Algarve, its southern climate, gentle winters, warm springs, hot summers and mild autumns, where the sun shines for more than 300 days a year!

Historically the people in the know who worked in busy cities such as Faro Albufeira and Portimao sought sanctuary and tranquility to relax and recuperate.

The area west just outside of Albufeira Old Town and Marina involves a magnificent stretch of coastline protected by rigorous building restrictions that have protected the integrity of its coastline

During the touristic boom of the early 90s every European Tour operators front brochure featured the magnificent beaches of Sao Rafael, Arrifes, Coelho and Castelo.

These magnificent family friendly beaches enabled tour companies to wax lyrically about the majestic cliff top walks overlooking stunning rock formations 17 million years in the making amidst a gentle calming environment on the sandy shores of the pristine aqua green coloured Atlantic Ocean

Evaristo beach was home to the marriage of one of Portugal's most famous Football players and features a famous fish market restaurant ideally situated to watch the incredible summer sunset

Little Lourenco beach even has unique rock pools where at high tide you can stand - precariously! - and appear to be walking on the water!

Stroll around the cliffs to the start of the magnificent Gale Beach and its 8km stretch of sand featuring a everything from a surf school to a 2 star Michelin restaurant!

The largest salt water lagoon in the Algarve at Salgados is home not only to a stunning 72 hole links golf course but the migrating flamingos which turn the water pink in September

Low level buildings, sumptuous villas and numerous high quality restaurants reflect the upmarket ambiance of this wonderful location.

Centrally located within the Algarve region with close access to the A22 motorway, Faro International airport is a 40 minute drive.

And if this wasn't enough, a 10 minute drive north is the famous village of Guia, regarded by the Portuguese as the birthplace of Portugal's most internationally renowned meat dish Chicken Piri Piri !
