The old village of Milatos is about 1.5kms inland and consists of old traditional stone houses, churches, small local shop and a few kafeneons. There are wonderful views here down across to the sea. Approx 3kms on the road out of the old village is the famous Milatos Cave. History has it that in 1823, 2500

Cretans sought refuge there when they were besieged by their Turkish occupiers. It is still possible to visit the cave. The latter day addition to Milatos comprises the small delightful fishing village with shingle beach and harbour area and restaurants, cafes and shops. The international airport at Heraklion is within an 40 minute drive.

Please note that all measurements and distances are approximate and intended as a guide only.

The advertised property price does not include buyer real estate agent fee, buyer legal and administrative costs or purchase tax.
