The department of Loiret is located in the Centre region of France. It is a well populated area with around 670,000 inhabitants and like many French departments it gets its name from the river that runs through the core.

Loiret offers a rich history and many stunning period buildings, Manor Houses, Churches and Chateaux dating from various periods of history. The main town of Loiret is Orleans which is most famous for one person in history, as we all know.

Loiret is favoured by Parisians in search of an escape from the city, as the area is a only one hour south of Paris. A mainly rural, green environment, Loiret is an ideal place to rest and relax away from the noise of Paris.

With many lakes, canals and rivers, many people will be glad to live in or visit this stunning department. This abundance of water bring many leisure activities to the fore as well as the many forests in the area that help to contribute to this relaxed atmosphere.

Loiret is a land of prestige property, yet still being good value for money. From the classic French Farmhouses, Maisons de Maitre, Manor Houses and Winegrowers' Houses, to small town and village houses, you will find a style to suit you and comfort on offer anywhere you go.
