The house has mains drainage and heating comes from the wood-burning stove and oil heating system.

Outside:

The garden covers 1800m² and is predominantly lawned and low-maintenance, but the views stretch over towards the meandering river and lake. There is an adjoining outbuilding that houses a workshop with attic space. There is also a wooden outbuilding for storage.

Location:

The property is situated just the other side of the river from the medieval town of Vouvant which is about a 10 minute walk. The town has a good selection of shops, restaurants and an excellent weekly market. Vouvant is officially classified by the French government as one of the most beautiful villages in France. Surrounded by lovely countryside and far-reaching views, this is an area with lots to explore. The nearby forest and lakes are ideal for walking and water-based sports.
