Informação adicional:

We present a stunning modern 4-bedroom semidetached family home with a spacious private garden in a small complex of only 4 houses

Nestled in a typical peaceful location area and only a few kms to the traditional village of Santa Barbara we find this stylish property set in a wonderful countryside setting.

Conveniently located, its only a short drive to the City of Faro, its international airport and all the delights that the Algarve Capital has to offer

Comprised of a hall leading into a large living and dining area with an open plan fully equipped kitchen featuring top of the range appliances the house offers the seamless blend of functionality and sophistication

For comfort and convenience, the ground floor features a guest cloak room with shower, a separate laundry and storage area, a bedroom and direct access to the underground garage

The wide staircase leads us up into the first floor where we find the master ensuite bedroom with a dressing room. Two additional large bedrooms both with fitted wardrobes share a full bathroom and enjoy the benefits of private balconies with views to the surrounding countryside

The architectural design of the property highlights its large open spaces, sleek modern finishings, and family areas

The extensive private garage can easily accommodate 2 vehicles and also has the benefit of an additional storage area.

The large family friendly garden is tranquil and low maintenance featuring a childrens playarea with a fun filled sized sauna for the adults.

For year-round comfort the property has central air conditioning in all the social areas, reverse heating machines in the bedrooms, solar paneling with electric shutters and entrance points throughout.

The cozy addition of underfloor heating in the bathrooms make this an attractive proposition for either a family holiday or a permanent home.

The ideal opportunity to meet, match and make this epitome of elegance your home!
