Nice village with all amenities, grocery store, cafe/restaurant, post office, 20 minutes from Beziers and 30 minutes from the beaches.

In the heart of a winegrowing village, this 300 m2 former stone wine storehouse is waiting to be restored to its former glory. With its authentic character, solid walls and soul of yesteryear, this building offers an ideal base for a renovation project full of character. Its beautiful stonework and generous volumes allow you to imagine a warm and unique interior, combining the charm of the past with modern comforts. Outside, a small 50 m2 garden completes this property, offering a pleasant space to enjoy the fine weather. Whether you're a lover of stone or looking for an exciting project, this is a rare opportunity for you!

Miscellaneous = Water and electricity installed + mains drainage planned + beams and rafters in good condition + some tiles to be replaced + old wine vats + not subject to energy performance diagnostics.
