VRYSOULLES

A quaint village surrounded by orange groves and olive trees, Vrysoulles has all amenities including shops, pharmacy, schools and five of the best tavernas in the area. It is popular for many expats who have invested in property. At the top of the village is the British Military base of Ayios Nicolaos which leads to the border checkpoint enabling access to and from Northern Cyprus.

Vrysoulles has a lovely community feel, on high days and holidays you will find the square full of a great mix of nationalities all mixing together and enjoying the festivities. There is a English style fish and chip shop, a supermarket with a wide variety of English produce, and the Octagon Tavern hosts a thrice weekly award winning drag show, called Stardust which brings busloads of tourists and locals to the village.

ABOUT THE FAMAGUSTA REGION

Whether you are planning to visit the Famagusta region of the Republic of Cyprus for the first time or you are already in love with the area, there is something here for everyone.

The area is not known as the 'Jewel of the Eastern Mediterranean` for nothing! From the stunning cliffs of Cavo Greko (the most Easterly point of Europe) to quaint inland villages, to the 44 (yes 44!) white sandy Blue Flag beaches, the area holds something for every palette. We have beautiful nature trails, water sports galore, amazing fresh cuisine, nightlife, one of the top waterparks in Europe, fishing harbours, a world class Marina and the list goes on and on! You are never far from anywhere in Famagusta, a maximum 15 minute drive to the nearest beach from even the most inland villages.

Thousands of expats of all nationalities have made Cyprus their home over the years due to the warm local welcome, fantastic climate and host of things to do. The bustling cities of Limassol, Larnaca and Nicosia are just over an hour away but here you can enjoy a more relaxed pace of life. Crime rates are amongst the lowest in Europe, English and Russian are widely spoken and there is always time for a chat, a coffee or a glass of wine in the sunshine. We look forward to introducing you to hidden gems of the area on your next visit.
