ABOUT THE AREA

Torre Vieja is surrounded by two large natural saltwater lagoons, which form the well-known 'Salterns of Torre Vieja'. It is situated on the Costa Blanca, approximately 40 minutes south of the international airport at Alicante. Los Altos isn't a resort in the package holiday sense, there are only a few hotels, and the area is much loved by the Spanish, who flock here during the summer months for their holidays.

The town is surrounded by excellent urbanisation, all boasting pools and beautiful gardens, the area enjoys fabulous beaches with fine sand and crystal clear waters. Many people from the north of Spain and northern Europe have set up home permanently in the town; the local people are friendly and welcome both national and international tourism. English is widely spoken. All in all Los Altos is an ideal holiday destination for the whole family at any time of the year.

Beaches

All of the local beaches around Los Altos hold the European Blue Flag for 'Clean Sea and Excellent Facilities'; La Mata, Los Locos, El Cura, El Acequión and Los Naufragos together make up the beaches of the Torre Vieja coast.

There are marvellous coves in the northern part, as well as the saline swimming pools, which can be found beside the Juan Aparicio promenade right in the centre of the town. Both the promenades and fishing port are attractions in their own right for visitors to this part of the southern Mediterranean.

Torre Vieja is a city in Spain's southeastern Alicante province, on the Costa Blanca. It's known for its Mediterranean climate and coastline. Promenades run along sandy, resort-backed beaches. The tiny Museo del Mar y de la Sal houses exhibits exploring the town's fishing and salt-mining history. Inland, the Lagunas de la Mata-Torre Vieja Nature Park has trails and 2 salt lakes, one pink and the other green.
